Cheese

President Brie 3.99 lb

If you're putting together a cheese selection, don't forget the brie! Everyone loves it, and with good reason: the texture is luxuriously soft (and it oozes as it achieves room temperature), the flavor is pleasantly mushroom, and its fluffy white rind gives it a handsome appearance on a cheese platter. This is a high-quality French-made brie, but with a very friendly price.

Stravecchio Provolone 11.99 lb

Some refer to Provolone as Italy's national cheese. Perhaps the most famous Provolone producer is Auricchio, a family business that dates back to 1877. aged for 12 months and offering a sharp, spicy flavor that tickles the tongue. It is excellent as part of an antipasto course, paired with olives and red wine. Keep in mind that this aged Provolone is quite sharp, meaning that a little bit goes a long way.
